Freshmen Defeated

In a fast game of basketball, characterized by rough playing, the Freshmen went down to defeat at the hands of the Clinton High School Independents at Scollard Opera House, Wednesday, by the score of 23 to 26.

Clinton's victory was largely due to clever passing coupled with unusually proficient shooting. The Freshmen played pluckily but displayed a great lack of practice.

The game started with the first goal to Clinton's credit. Capt. Woods of the Freshmen followed with a difficult shot, tying the score. From this point the game waxed fast and furious. Both teams played neck and neck, the score at the end of the first half being 11-13 in Clinton's favor. During the earlier moments of the second half victory for the Freshmen seemed probable. Brilliant work by Woods and Griswold gave 1913 a lead of six points, but Clinton, taking advantage of its opponents' inability to cover, soon forged ahead. From this point Clinton held the lead until the end of the game.

The Freshmen were somewhat handicapped by the slippery floor as well as the strange court. Capt. Woods played a particularly good game, his floor work being aggressive and his shooting excellent. Griswold excelled in his ability to keep to his man, while Mahady, altho handicapped by his opponent's weight, won applause by his passing and dodging. Stone, Lewis, and Jessup played the guards in commendable fashion.

For Clinton, Scoones and Chaney were the particular stars.

The summary follows:

1913	C. H. S. I.
Griswold	Taylor
	Right Forward
Mahady (Jessup)	Brayton
	Left Forward

Woods	Restle
Center
Stone	Chaney
Right Guard
T. C. Jessup (Lewis)	Scoones
Left Guard

Goals: Griswold 3, Mahady 1, Jessup 1, Woods 3, Stone 1, Taylor 1, Chaney 6, Scoones 5. Goals from fouls: Woods 5, Scoones 2. Time of halves, 20 minutes. Referee and Umpire, Thomes, '12 and Lenahan, alternating. Timekeepers, Watkins, '12, and Lenahan.

Seniors Dine

Not to be outdone by the other three classes, the Seniors gathered Saturday night in the Butterfield Grill for an informal Beefsteak Dinner. After the inner man had been satisfied by a fair sample of Monsieur Swan's cuisine, a short toast list was responded to. Harper Swift acted as toastmaster, and in his new role presented himself as a worthy rival of Dounce, who has acted in this capacity at gatherings of 1910 in the past. Judson spoke on Hamilton Oratory, and his conglomeration of the declamations which the members of the class have made in past history, was amusing to say the least. "The Joy of Living" was ably demonstrated by Mix—not that the class needs any shining example to realize the value of such an art, but then a little advice always helps. Engs was supposed to talk about "Managerships; Past, Present and Future" but his toast consisted mainly of some stories that his classmates had stowed in his ear. Barber, the class president, foretold the future of 1910, and if it is as good as he predicts, the present Senior class will live happily ever after. The committee which made the successful arrangements consisted of Coupe, Sarles and Renwick.

Prom. Concert

The Musical Clubs have been working over time the past week, in preparation for the concert on Thursday afternoon. This appearance of the Clubs, which has always been one of the principal features of Junior Week, promises to lend even greater charm to this year's Prom. Since the "first night" at the Scollard Opera House, the leaders have worked hard to make the program as complete as possible. In this they have succeeded, and the numbers given at the Prom. Concert will be substantially the same as those that will be included in the program for the Winter trip. One of the new features of the program is the violin duet by Woods and Heidner, '13. This selection will take the place of the Mandolin Quartette, which has heretofore been one of the chief attractions. The Glee Club has several surprises in store, including some new pieces arranged especially for this purpose.

The concert will be given in Commons Hall, beginning at 3 o'clock. The program follows:

1. The Phantom Band, ... Thayer

INTERSCHOLASTIC DAY

Arrangements for Interscholastic Day are now well under way, Renwick, '10, who is in charge of the meet, having sent invitations to about 80 schools. This prompt action on the part of the committee should insure a large meet, in fact, the best known to the College. The program for the Interscholastic, altho including many of the features of previous occasions, will be complete and attractive. On Friday evening the sub-Freshmen will be given a reception in Silliman Hall.

Saturday the track meet and prize speaking contest will take place, in which the usual events will be opened to the visiting athletes, including as a special event a One Mile Championship Relay. The successful contestants in the regular track events will receive gold, silver and bronze medals as they finish first, second and third, respectively. Special gold medals will be awarded to those winning the Relay and a point trophy will be given to the school winning the most points in the meet.

In the evening, after the meet, a smoker will be given in Commons Hall, at which several prominent Alumni and members of the Faculty will speak. Several schools have already accepted the invitation and the advance information points to a most successful Interscholastic.

THE LONG-ANTICIPATED WEEK is at hand, and tomorrow the old Hill will become co-educational, for a few days at least. To all of us it means a pleasant three days, and for that reason we welcome it in the same way as in the days of old. The committee has put forth all its efforts to make every arrangement complete and successful, and for the next few days the College enjoys the results of its efforts. May the Week be the best ever—the memories of it even better.

ABOUT THIS TIME last year a certain innovation, which can hardly be deemed of value, was inaugurated. Now the same thing has happened, but—more is the pity—in a greater degree. We refer to the practice of making out Junior Prom. programs before the advance cards are issued. Now this is obviously selfish and unfair. It means that some men will be unable to fill a card to their liking, if they wait until the proper time for so doing. Will some one tell what is the advantage of making out cards a few days before the appointed time, with no other reason it would seem, but mere perversity? Perhaps it is due to thoughtlessness, but whatever is its cause, it is too late now to mend our ways, but it may serve as a warning next year. LIFE hopes that it will be heeded

“It is fully recognized that most of our registration comes from Western New York and the daily papers in most of the towns round about us are also receiving the news of the college. It is planned to make this work more effective than ever by the issue of a weekly news bulletin which will be sent out at the end of each week. This is a plan already in active operation at Hamilton College. At that college, the Press Club is especially aggressive, the Rochester papers being recipients of the service which they maintain.”

—Rochester Campus.

THE ABOVE CLIPPING is only one more disinterested testimonial of the real worth of Hamilton's Press Association, and as such we gladly print it. Perhaps it is now almost an old story, but nevertheless after all the years of useless stationery-supplying Press Clubs we cannot refrain from giving the present Association all the credit that is its due. When those two Seniors—you all know who they are—started out the year it was surely a difficult task that was before them. That they have accomplished it well goes without saying. The above clipping is but one of the manifestations of their good work. All success to their efforts, and what is much more important, LIFE hopes that the work will not die with them, but will become greater and greater, and nearer its goal—a larger Hamilton.

THE EDITORIAL entitled “The Doorbell Rings,” of the January Lit. includes much that is worthy of commendation. For many years past the publications have endeavored to present to the College the actions which have been taken at various times by the Advisory Board, and, at the same time, to print editorial comment, either pro or con. Granted that such comment can be, at most, but the opinion of one man, nevertheless, if we credit any power to the press, either in College or in the world, everyone must agree that this opinion, personal tho it may be, should be as sound and logical as possible. If the Editors have no part in the discussion of proposed projects, or no way of securing it, obviously the comment must be based on hearsay alone. Now, it is not proposed that the representatives of the College press should have a vote on the Board, but merely should act as ex-officio members, and so have the opportunity to hear the discussion, and perhaps give their own opinion on the business at hand.

It has been proposed that the finances of the papers also be placed in the hands of the Board, on the same basis as the managers of other College activities. However, we can see no value in such an action. It would only further complicate the already intricate financial system of the Board. It can be of no benefit to the publications themselves. In fact, one of the managers has stated that it would be an obstacle in carrying out the business end of the work.

The Editors, however, should have a place, ex-officio, at least, on the Board, and to the end of securing that position, LIFE heartily commends, and seconds the proposal of its sister publication. It is, at least, worth consideration, and as such we present it again to the consideration of those in authority.

DR. MILLER'S NEW WORK.

Another of Dr. Miller's works on Geology has been published as one of the Education Department Bulletins of New York State. It treats of the geology of the Port Leyden Quadrangle, Lewis County. This publication is the result of the personal field work which Dr. Miller did during the past summer, and for that reason is very accurate and thoro. It is illustrated thruout by photographs taken by the author, and this adds to the attractiveness of the volume. There are also many drawings, portraying the rock formations of the section which it describes.

This work and others similar to it, are not only of value geologically, but, also, being written by one of Hamilton's Faculty cannot help but advance the name of the College in the scientific world.

PROM.

The gaily-decorated Gym., the moving furniture, the newly-pressed dress clothes and the weary Freshmen denote that preparations for Junior Week are almost completed, and the Hill is ready to receive its fair visitors.

The committee of Juniors has done its best to make a most attractive program for the whole week as well as for the Prom. Wednesday night are four receptions, Alpha Delta Phi, Psi Upsilon, Theta Delta Chi and E. L. S., and Thursday afternoon the Musical Clubs' Concert at Commons Hall.

Thursday of course is the big night. The demand for advance cards indicates a dance of over one hundred couples. The shortening of the program to thirty dances admits the possibility of finishing by three o'clock as announced.

Allen's decorations are novel and unusually attractive. The style of the programs has not been disclosed. The engagement of Zita insures "dancy" music. Merz will serve supper. The committee's preparations are beyond criticism.

Friday the Charlatans perform at the Opera House, and the four receptions of Sigma Phi, Chi Psi, Delta Upsilon and Delta Kappa Epsilon, Friday night, will close the formal entertainments. An Underclassman Dance will be held at the Psi Upsilon House. Many unscheduled amusements, however, will be enjoyed, especially the coasting and sleighing.

All the arrangements are most creditable to the committee and to the class of 1911. Its Prom. seems destined to go down in Hamilton history as the greatest ever.

FOOTBALL REFORM

The Intercollegiate Athletic Association held a meeting at the Murray Hill Hotel, New York, recently, for the purpose of discussing the present football rules. In their meeting the previous evening, the Executive Committee received communications from over eighty colleges, each giving its own stand on the question of football and many suggesting changes which would in their opinion eliminate the dangers of the game. The most noteworthy of these was that received from West Point. The most important changes which they suggested for eliminating the danger were: The abolition of professional coaches, the opening up of the game by all possible means, eliminating mass plays and heavy interference, prohibiting dragging or pulling the runner.

In the morning session of the Association, formal papers were presented as follows:

"The Work of the Intercollegiate Athletic Association," by President P. E. Pierce.

"The Function of Athletics in College Life," Chancellor J. R. Day of Syracuse.

"Competition in Collegiate Athletics," Dr. D. A. Sargent, Harvard.

"The Interrelation of all forms of Amateur Athletics," Dr. J. T. McCurdy, Springfield T. S.

"Courtesy and Sportsmanship in Intercollegiate Athletics," Prof. Thomas F. Moran, Purdue.

In the afternoon session many communications were read on the subject of football reform, and several short addresses were made by the delegates, notably Hon. Thomas E. Hodges, of West Virginia, President W. H. Crawford of Allegheny, and President Edwin A. Alderman of Virginia.

Prof. E. K. Hall of Dartmouth then introduced the following resolution: "That the Football Rules Committee of the Association be instructed to use every possible endeavor to bring about such a modification of the rules as shall in their judgment, tend to reduce to the minimum the dangers of physical injury to the players, and at the same time, retain, so far as may be possible, the most desirable and wholesome features of the game." After some discussion this measure was passed by a vote of 64 to 4.

The Rules Committee was elected as follows: Dr. H. L. Williams, University of Minnesota; Dr. James A. Babbitt, Haverford; Dr. E. K. Hall, Dartmouth; Lieut. H. B. Hackett, U. S. Military Academy; Professor W. L. Dudley, Vanderbilt; Dr. W. A. Lambeth, University of Virginia; Professor C. W. Savage, Oberlin. The committee was instructed to communicate with the representatives of Yale, Princeton, Harvard, Pennsylvania, Cornell, Annapolis and Chicago, which constituted the Committee that formed the Football Rules Committee in 1905, and propose that the committee be amalgamated into one which shall formulate rules under which football shall be played in 1910. If this amalgamation can not be accomplished, provision was made that the Rules Committee of the Association frame up a set of rules under which the institutions belonging to the Association shall play.

Officers were then elected as follows: President, Captain Palmer E. Pierce, U. S. A.; Vice-President, Professor R. Tait McKenzie, University of Pennsylvania; Secretary-Treasurer, Professor Frank W. Nicolson, of Wesleyan. Professor F. W. Marvel of Brown, Director W. N. Golden of Penn. State, Professor A. H. Patterson of University of North Carolina, Professor C. W. Savage of Oberlin, Professor S. W. Beyer of Iowa State, and Professor C. W. Hetherington of University of Missouri were elected as District Representatives.

In the evening a meeting of the Rules Committee was held, at which several prominent football coaches were present. An informal discussion concerning possible changes in the rules was held at this time.

The Association has now an enrollment of sixty-nine institutions representing over 100,000 students.

This year the following applied for membership and were elected: Brown, Delaware College, Indiana University, University of Tennessee, Bates, Harvard, Norwich, Columbia, University of Arkansas, Carleton College, University of Mississippi and C. C. N. Y. The election of Harvard and Columbia adds to the Association a great deal of power and leaves only three of the large institutions of the East out, viz., Yale, Princeton and Cornell.

—"Uncle John" has made informal announcement of a probable Gymnasium Exhibition shortly, there being an abundance of good material in College. "Uncle" promises a new line of stunts, which will be sure to please. More definite arrangements will be made after Prom.

—It has been found inadvisable to stage the proposed Freshman curtain raiser owing to the length of the main production.

The circuit thus made forms an excellent outdoor course for the Relay Team. Already much better time has been made than was possible on the Gymnasium track.

—In a recent issue of the Utica Press there appears a long letter from Dr. F. H. Wood, who is now touring the world. Dr. Wood writes from Manila and speaks enthusiastically of the work of the American teachers in the Philippines. He goes from Manila to Singapore, and from there will start for home.

COLLEGE MEETING

A meeting of the Athletic Association was held in the Chapel last Saturday noon. The proposed additions to the constitution were adopted by the student body with but few slight changes. The office of Sophomore Representative was abolished, the reason for so doing being that the Sophomore Class is already represented on the Board by the Assistant Managers. The clause referring to the Alumni members of the Board was changed so that any former student of the College whether he has received his degree or not, may hold office. This will enable many men who are interested in the student activities of the College to take an active interest in their management. It was moved and carried that the first tax, under the new system, be levied on the first day of March in order to finance the winter activities.
